Other notes

We want a striking and original logo that captures our unique gym identity:

A puppet in a Jiu Jitsu gi, suspended by strings, controlled by a hand emerging through a swirling string-theory-inspired halo or portal. The hand should feel powerful—like a cosmic puppeteer—reaching through the portal from above.

The puppet should be:

-Limp/hanging, as if suspended in mid-air by strings

-Wearing a traditional Jiu Jitsu gi (no belt rank needed)

-No facial features—simplified, abstract human figure

The hand:

Should emerge from a swirling halo or sphere that references string theory (the scientific concept)

Can have a divine, cosmic, or mystical feel—but NOT fantasy or cartoony.

The name String Theory Jiu Jitsu is a play on the scientific theory that all matter is connected by vibrating strings — but it also represents the idea of a puppet master controlling the outcome through subtle, precise movements.
